

Thanks for this great way to provide input. I urge you to continue to uphold standards limiting violence and profanity on TV. It seems these standards are slipping and being relaxed, or perhaps just violations of them. The cost to society of this is huge.